About GlobeXpenC

GlobeXpenC provides high tech solutions and advisory services for Concur Travel & Expense users. With over a decade of international experience from 17 countries, we are committed to providing flexible best-practice solutions for our clients.

Why GlobeXpenC?

Save Time, Save Money

We believe employees are at the core of any company. By saving time spent on expense reporting, our clients are able to generate business value and improve employee satisfaction due to smoother expense reporting and faster processing.

Global Reach

Our customized solutions help customers integrate all expenses into Concur, globally. Our solutions utilize readily available technologies, which makes them accessible for even the smallest business units. We also help companies find best practices in Concur and give consulting on European markets.

Supports Local Requirements

With our solutions, language is no longer a problem for adopting Concur Travel & Expense. Our solutions can be translated into any language, which gives users the ability to easily create expense reports using their own words.

Power tool for travelers and delegates
Create expense reports with spreadsheets and email - Even offline

In Brief

EmailXpenC allows users to effortlessly create and submit expense reports by email and Excel. Everything can be done on-the-go, without the need for constant internet connection or logging in to Concur account.

How does it work?

Emailing expenses directly to Concur

Creating expense reports using our email feature is efficient and works with virtually all platforms including any mobile phones and tablets with an email client. Simply type the expense information in the message body, attach pictures of receipts and submit reports to Concur.

Creating expense reports in Microsoft Excel

EmailXpenC allows users to create expense reports offline in Excel. Just fill in your expenses at your convenience and email the document to Concur once ready. We provide you with a ready-to-use Excel template and are happy to customize your organization's existing Excel template to work with EmailXpenC.

Key Features

Offline functionality.

Create expense reports on-the-go without need for constant internet access. You can even send expenses directly for approval, without ever logging to Concur.

Works with virtually any platform.

Whether at home or overseas, our solution works globally using any device with e-mail functionality. Just snap a photo of the receipt, attach it in the e-mail and type in the expense information - it's that easy!

Supports local languages.

We understand the global needs of multinational companies. EmailXpenC makes it possible for everyone in the company to create expense reports in their own language, using our customized Excel Templates.

Supports delegates

With delegate support, making and submitting reports in Excel becomes a simple and standardized process for both parties. No more scanning and printing - save time and reduce paper trail often associated with expense reporting.
